KIDS COUNT in Delaware is pleased to present a new and improved website. Our address remains www.dekidscount.org but the redesigned site has a new look and feel which has been aligned with that of the Center for Community Research and Service, KIDS COUNT in Delaware’s home within UD. The new site is streamlined, optimized for handheld devices and easy to navigate for KIDS COUNT publications and news. Check it out here.

KIDS COUNT “Photo Voice” Challenge!!

This is your opportunity to submit your photo for the 2017 KIDS COUNT Fact Book!!! The theme for this year’s fact book is “What Would it Take” and we want to know what you think! Please use a white board to write what you think kids need to succeed and snap a photo of yourself holding your idea! We want to hear from community leaders, concerned citizens, parents, kids, and anyone else who cares about Delaware’s kids. Help us to fill this year’s fact book with photos of those that know what it takes to help our kids succeed! Examples are below. Please email photos to klowman@udel.edu.
